Hi Nancy!

What an amazing event! I don't know where to begin to thank you for all the information you provided so freely all weekend. You are truly the most brilliant and enthusiastic person I've had the honor to study under in my entire career.

You not only taught me things that I didn't even know I didn't know. But, you have inspired me more than you could ever imagine and have given me the confidence to help me realize that "I am enough".

After this last weekend, I think you have a new #1 Fan!

Please count me in to start as a student whenever your earliest availability arises. The anticipation is immense.

Thank you again for eye opening insights which I will always be grateful that I learned from you.

Respectfully,
